

DISTORTER

Meaning: A distorter is a person or thing that alters or misrepresents reality, facts, or perceptions in a significant way.

1. The artist was known as a master distorter of reality, transforming ordinary scenes into surreal landscapes.
2. In the debate, he was accused of being a distorter of facts, twisting statistics to support his argument.
3. The film's narrative served as a distorter of truth, leading viewers to question what was real and what was fabricated.
4. She acted as a distorter of memories, often embellishing past events to create a more intriguing story.
5. His role as a distorter of sound added an unexpected layer to the musical composition, challenging traditional perceptions of harmony.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/distorter>