

DISTRACTIBLE

Meaning: Easily diverted or unable to maintain attention on a single task or activity.

1. Children can be quite distractible, often shifting their focus from one activity to another in a matter of seconds.
2. The distractible nature of the puppy made it challenging for the owner to train him effectively.
3. In a world full of notifications and distractions, staying focused can be especially difficult for the distractible individual.
4. Her distractible tendencies were evident during the lecture, as she frequently glanced at her phone instead of paying attention.
5. Many people find that practicing mindfulness can help them manage their distractible habits more effectively.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/distractible>