

DISTRACTILE

Meaning: Distractile (adjective): capable of being easily distracted or having a tendency to shift attention frequently.

1. The distractile nature of her thoughts made it difficult to focus on the lecture.
2. Children often have distractile tendencies, easily shifting their attention from one toy to another.
3. In a world filled with distractions, maintaining a distractile mindset can be both a challenge and an asset.
4. He was known for his distractile behavior, frequently losing track of conversations mid-sentence.
5. The distractile elements in the environment contributed to her inability to complete the task at hand.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/distractile>