

DISTRACTION

Meaning: Distraction: something that diverts attention away from a task or focus.

1. The loud music from the party became a major distraction for her while she was trying to study.
2. His phone buzzing with notifications was a constant distraction during the important meeting.
3. To minimize distractions, she decided to work in a quiet café instead of her usual office.
4. The bright screen and flashing advertisements were too much of a distraction for him to focus on the task at hand.
5. Finding a silent space helped him eliminate distractions and significantly improve his productivity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/distraction>