

DISTRAIT

Meaning: Distract: preoccupied or inattentive due to being lost in thought or daydreaming.

1. She appeared distract during the meeting, frequently drifting off into her own thoughts.
2. As he walked through the busy street, his distract expression suggested he was lost in a daydream.
3. The distract student struggled to concentrate on the lecture, his mind racing with personal worries.
4. Her eyes looked distract as she stared blankly at the page, unable to focus on the words.
5. Despite his normally sharp demeanor, he seemed quite distract after receiving the unexpected news.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/distract>