

DISTRIBUTIVENESS

Meaning: DISTRIBUTIVENESS refers to the quality or principle of being distributed or allocated, particularly in relation to resources or mathematical operations.

1. The distributiveness of resources within the community has led to improved living standards for everyone.
2. In mathematics, the principle of distributiveness allows us to simplify complex expressions efficiently.
3. Her distributiveness in sharing knowledge among her peers greatly enhanced the group's overall understanding.
4. The distributiveness of the new policy was evident in its impact across various sectors of the economy.
5. By advocating for distributiveness in wealth allocation, the organization aims to reduce inequality in society.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/distributiveness>