

DISTRICTION

Meaning: Distinction: a difference or contrast between similar things, or a special honor or recognition for excellence.

1. The distinction between right and wrong can often be subjective.
2. She earned a special distinction for her groundbreaking research in genetics.
3. His ability to make a clear distinction between similar concepts impressed everyone in the class.
4. The distinction between the two theories was subtle but significant in the context of the debate.
5. Cultural distinctions can influence how people perceive art and literature around the world.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/distriction>