

DISTRUST

Meaning: Distrust is a lack of confidence or belief in someone's honesty or intentions.

1. Her constant late arrivals only served to deepen his distrust of her intentions.
2. Despite their years of friendship, a lingering distrust had emerged after the betrayal.
3. The community's distrust of the new policy grew as more details were revealed.
4. She approached the situation with a healthy dose of distrust, wary of their promises.
5. Building trust takes time, but one act of dishonesty can quickly lead to distrust.
6. His history of dishonesty led to a deep sense of distrust among his colleagues.
7. She couldn't shake the feeling of distrust that lingered after the unexpected betrayal.
8. The politician's evasive answers only fueled the public's distrust of his motives.
9. Building trust takes time, but a single mistake can quickly foster distrust.
10. In relationships, open communication is essential to overcome feelings of distrust.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/distrust>