

DISTRUSTER

Meaning: A distruster is a person who is skeptical or lacks confidence in the reliability or integrity of others, particularly authority figures or close relationships.

1. A distruster of authority, she often questioned the motives behind government decisions.
2. His experience with previous relationships turned him into a chronic distruster of anyone who tried to get close.
3. In a world filled with misinformation, becoming a distruster of media sources can sometimes feel like a necessity.
4. The team's progress was hampered by a key member who had become a distruster of collaborative efforts.
5. As a lifelong distruster of big corporations, he preferred to support local businesses whenever possible.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/distruster>