

DISTRUSTFUL

Meaning: DISTRUSTFUL: characterized by a lack of trust or confidence in others, often leading to skepticism or suspicion.

1. Her distrustful nature made it difficult for her to form close relationships.
2. The distrustful gaze he cast towards the stranger revealed his skepticism.
3. Despite their reassurances, she remained distrustful of their intentions.
4. His distrustful attitude often led to misunderstandings with his colleagues.
5. Living in a world filled with deception made her inherently distrustful of others.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/distrustful>