

DISTUNE

Meaning: To distune means to become out of tune or to lose proper pitch, resulting in discordance in musical performance.

1. The orchestra's performance was marred by a few instruments that seemed to distune during the concert.
2. As the weather changed, the outdoor strings began to distune, affecting the overall harmony of the band.
3. It took several hours of practice to ensure that nothing would distune during the important competition.
4. The pianist noticed that the old piano had started to distune, making it difficult to play in tune with the other musicians.
5. Even the slightest temperature shift can cause a guitar to distune, requiring frequent adjustments before a gig.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/distune>