

DISUNION

Meaning: Disunion refers to a state of division or separation, particularly among groups or factions, leading to conflict or instability.

1. The country faced a period of disunion that threatened its very foundation.
2. Disunion among the factions led to a chaotic struggle for power.
3. Her disunion with her former colleagues became evident during the meeting.
4. The historian examined the causes of disunion that plagued the nation during the 19th century.
5. Efforts to bridge the gap between the opposing sides were met with skepticism due to their longstanding disunion.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disunion>