

DISUTILIZE

Meaning: Disutilize: to render resources or talents ineffective or underutilized due to poor management or decisions.

1. The new policy may disutilize the existing resources that were previously allocated for team projects.
2. By failing to communicate effectively, the manager has begun to disutilize the talent within her department.
3. Excessive regulations can disutilize the creativity and innovation that small businesses thrive on.
4. He realized too late that his aggressive approach would only disutilize the goodwill of his colleagues.
5. To truly succeed, we must avoid decisions that disutilize our strong community partnerships.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disutilize>