DISVALUATION

Meaning: Disvaluation refers to the reduction in the value or worth of a currency or asset, often leading to increased costs or economic concerns.

1. The disvaluation of currency has led to increased prices for imported goods.
2. Many economists are concerned about the disvaluation of assets in the current market.
3. The government introduced measures to counteract the disvaluation of the national currency.
4. Investors are wary of the disvaluation of real estate in the declining market.
5. Disvaluation can significantly impact consumer confidence and spending behavior.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/disvaluation