

DISWARN

Meaning: Diswarn (verb): To inform or alert someone about potential dangers or misinformation.

1. The teacher decided to diswarn the students about the dangers of misinformation online.
2. In an effort to diswarn the public, the organization released a series of informative articles.
3. He felt it was his duty to diswarn his friends about the potential risks of the new investment scheme.
4. The campaign aimed to diswarn citizens about the increased rates of cybercrime in their area.
5. She took it upon herself to diswarn her younger siblings of the pitfalls of peer pressure.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diswarn>