

DIURETIC

Meaning: A diuretic is a substance that promotes the increased production of urine, often used to manage conditions like high blood pressure or for weight loss.

1. The doctor prescribed a diuretic to help manage her high blood pressure.
2. Many athletes use diuretics to achieve rapid weight loss before competitions.
3. Caffeine is a common diuretic that can increase urine production temporarily.
4. Patients taking a diuretic should monitor their electrolyte levels regularly.
5. Natural diuretics like dandelion tea can be beneficial for reducing water retention.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diuretic>