

DIURNAL

Meaning: Diurnal refers to being active during the daytime, as opposed to being active at night.

1. Many animals exhibit diurnal behavior, being most active during the day.
2. The diurnal cycle of the Earth affects the life patterns of countless species.
3. Unlike nocturnal creatures, diurnal insects thrive in the warmth of sunlight.
4. The park's diurnal rhythms are marked by the sounds of birds singing at dawn.
5. Studying the diurnal habits of plants can reveal how they adapt to their environment.
6. Many animals exhibit diurnal behavior, being active during the day and resting at night.
7. The diurnal cycle of light and dark greatly influences plant growth and flowering patterns.
8. Researchers studied the diurnal temperature variations to understand climate change effects better.
9. Some species, like owls, are nocturnal, while others, such as sparrows, are strictly diurnal.
10. Diurnal rhythms are vital for maintaining the body's internal clock and overall health.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diurnal>