

DIURNATION

Meaning: Diurnation refers to the daily patterns of activity or behavior in organisms, particularly in relation to light and environmental changes.

1. The diurnation of certain plant species is crucial for their adaptation to changing light conditions.
2. Scientists studied the diurnation patterns of various animals to understand their behavioral rhythms.
3. In some cultures, diurnation is linked to traditional practices that align with the cycles of day and night.
4. The impact of climate change on diurnation raises concerns about the survival of sensitive ecosystems.
5. Understanding the diurnation of insects can help in developing strategies for pest control in agriculture.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diurnation>