

DIVAST

Meaning: To divast means to clear out or remove items, often for the purpose of donating or protecting something.

1. The artist decided to divast her wardrobe, donating old clothes to charity.
2. As the storm approached, the villagers were advised to divast their gardens to protect their crops.
3. In order to prepare for the upcoming event, she chose to divast her calendar and focus on the most important tasks.
4. The documentary aimed to divast the myths surrounding the ancient civilization, revealing the truth behind their practices.
5. After much consideration, he opted to divast his social media presence, prioritizing genuine connections over online popularity.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/divast>