

DIVERBERATION

Meaning: DIVERBERATION: The process of sound reflecting off surfaces, creating a complex pattern of echoes and reverberations.

1. The diverberation of sound in the canyon created an echo that lasted for several seconds.
2. As the orchestra played, the diverberation of notes filled the concert hall with a rich tapestry of sound.
3. The scientist studied the diverberation of seismic waves to better understand the earthquake's epicenter.
4. In the old cathedral, the diverberation of voices added a mystical quality to the choir's performance.
5. Understanding the diverberation of light in different mediums is crucial for advanced optics research.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diverberation>