

DIVERGINGLY

Meaning: DIVERGINGLY: in a manner that separates or moves apart in different directions or opinions.

1. The two paths in the forest were divergingly arranged, leading hikers in different directions.
2. As the debate progressed, their opinions began divergingly, reflecting their contrasting experiences.
3. The artists approached the theme of love divergingly, producing works that were both complementary and conflicting.
4. In today's society, people's values often evolve divergingly, creating a rich tapestry of beliefs.
5. The research findings showed the effects of climate change divergingly across different regions of the world.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/divergingly>