

DIVERSION

Meaning: Diversion: a deviation from a usual course or activity, often to provide relief or entertainment.

1. The storm forced a diversion of traffic away from the flooded roads.
2. She found that painting was a welcome diversion from her stressful job.
3. The park provided a perfect diversion for the kids during the long family trip.
4. His sudden interest in gardening became a pleasant diversion in her otherwise hectic life.
5. They decided to take a scenic route as a diversion from their usual commute.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/diversion>