

DIVIDED

Meaning: Divided: characterized by a lack of agreement or unity among individuals or groups.

1. The community was deeply divided over the proposed changes to the local park.
2. In the debate, opinions were divided, with some advocating for reform while others resisted change.
3. The inheritance was divided evenly among the siblings, ensuring fairness in the distribution of their parents' estate.
4. After the election, the nation felt divided, with stark differences in political views emerging among its citizens.
5. The students were divided into groups based on their interests for the upcoming science project.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/divided>