

DIVIDEDLY

Meaning: Dividedly: in a manner characterized by conflicting opinions or feelings.

1. She looked at the decision dividedly, unsure of which path to take.
2. The audience reacted dividedly to the controversial speech, with cheers from some and boos from others.
3. In the meeting, opinions were expressed dividedly, highlighting the lack of consensus among the team.
4. The town was dividedly affected by the new policy, with some residents welcoming the change while others opposed it.
5. As the debate progressed, the candidates presented their views dividedly, illustrating the deep divisions within the party.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dividedly>