

DIVIDINGLY

Meaning: Dividingly: in a manner that causes division or disagreement among people or groups.

1. The debate over climate change can be dividingly contentious among political factions.
2. In her speech, she addressed the issue of race, highlighting how it is often dividingly perceived in society.
3. The new policy was received dividingly, with half the staff in support and the other half in opposition.
4. His comments were dividingly interpreted, leaving many in the audience unsure of his true intentions.
5. Cultural differences can be dividingly impactful, shaping relationships in unexpected ways.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dividingly>