

DIVINIFY

Meaning: Divinify: to make something divine or to elevate it to a status of reverence and veneration.

1. The ancient texts often describe rituals designed to divinify the leaders of their tribes.
2. In her art, she sought to divinify the mundane, transforming everyday objects into objects of reverence.
3. Philosophers have long debated whether the concept of divinifying humanity is a noble aspiration or a misguided endeavor.
4. The indigenous people believed that certain ceremonies could divinify the earth, bestowing it with spiritual significance.
5. As she spoke, her words seemed to divinify the simple truths of life, elevating them to profound wisdom.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/divinify>