

DIVINIZE

Meaning: To divinize means to elevate or transform something into a divine or sacred status, often through rituals or artistic expression.

1. To divinize the natural world, many cultures have created rituals that honor the spirits of nature.
2. The artist aimed to divinize the mundane, transforming everyday scenes into expressions of the divine.
3. In ancient mythology, humans often sought to divinize their leaders, attributing god-like qualities to them.
4. Philosophers have debated whether it is possible to divinize human experiences without losing their authenticity.
5. The poet's work sought to divinize love, elevating it to a sacred and transcendent experience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/divinize>