

DIVISIONAL

Meaning: Divisional refers to a structure or role within an organization that is organized by distinct departments or regions, each operating with a degree of independence.

1. The divisional structure of the company allows for greater autonomy among its various departments.
2. In her role as a divisional manager, she oversees operations in three different regions.
3. The divisional meeting focused on strategies to improve sales and customer satisfaction.
4. Each divisional team is tasked with creating its own budget to better align with local market needs.
5. The CEO emphasized the importance of collaboration among divisional leaders to achieve company-wide goals.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/divisional>