DIVISIONARY

Meaning: Divisionary: causing or promoting division, conflict, or disagreement among individuals or groups.

1. The politician's speech was criticized for being overly divisionary, fostering conflict instead of unity.

2. In the meeting, her divisionary approach led to heated discussions rather than constructive collaboration.

3. The divisionary tactics employed by the media often skew public perception and exacerbate political tensions.

4. His divisionary comments during the debate only served to alienate potential supporters.

5. To promote harmony, the organization decided to avoid any divisionary rhetoric in their communications.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/divisionary