

DIVORCIBLE

Meaning: Divorcible refers to a marriage or union that is capable of being legally dissolved or annulled.

1. The couple found themselves in a situation where their marriage was clearly divorcible.
2. In some cultures, marriages are seen as sacred and not easily divorcible.
3. The lawyer explained that the grounds for separation made the union divorcible without complications.
4. After years of unhappiness, they realized their relationship was officially divorcible.
5. Many people underestimate how emotionally taxing a divorcible marriage can be.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/divorcible>