

DIVORCIVE

Meaning: Divorcive: causing separation or division, particularly in relationships or connections.

1. The couple's constant arguments had a divorcing effect on their relationship.
2. Her decision to pursue a career abroad felt divorcing from the life they had built together.
3. The financial strain proved to be a divorcing factor in their once-happy marriage.
4. He realized that their differing values were becoming increasingly divorcing over time.
5. Despite their efforts, the emotional distance grew too great, leading to a divorcing atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/divorcive>