

DIVULGATION

Meaning: Divulgence is the act of making information known or public, especially sensitive or confidential information.

1. The unauthorized divulgence of sensitive information could have serious consequences for national security.
2. She faced severe penalties for the divulgence of confidential client data without consent.
3. In a world increasingly driven by information, the divulgence of trade secrets can cripple a business.
4. The scientist's decision to allow the divulgence of her research findings was met with both praise and criticism.
5. During the trial, the judge emphasized the importance of safeguarding against the divulgence of evidence to the public.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/divulgence>