

DIVULGENCE

Meaning: Divulgence: the act of revealing or disclosing information, especially confidential or private details.

1. The divulgence of confidential information can lead to serious legal repercussions.
2. Her divulgence of personal secrets shocked her closest friends.
3. In a moment of weakness, he allowed the divulgence of his deepest fears.
4. The company's divulgence of trade secrets raised concerns among its competitors.
5. Despite the risks, the author felt that the divulgence of her experiences was necessary for her memoir.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/divulgence>