

DIZZARD

Meaning: Dizzard (adjective): feeling dizzy or lightheaded, often as a result of rapid movement or intense excitement.

1. The sudden rush of adrenaline left him feeling completely dizzard after the intense roller coaster ride.
2. She stumbled out of the spinning teacups, feeling dizzard from the dizzying motion.
3. After hours of studying without a break, he was dizzard and struggling to focus on the final exam.
4. The combination of the bright lights and loud music made the crowd feel dizzard with excitement.
5. Walking in circles for too long made her feel dizzard, prompting her to sit down and regain her balance.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dizzard>