

DO-LITTLE

Meaning: Do-little: a person who is lazy or ineffectual, contributing little to work or responsibilities.

1. His reputation as a do-little employee earned him the ire of his colleagues.
2. Despite his promising start, he became known as a do-little manager who avoided tough decisions.
3. The do-little attitude of the team led to missed deadlines and lost opportunities.
4. She realized that her do-little approach to studying was impacting her grades negatively.
5. It's frustrating to work with someone who has a do-little mentality while the rest of the team is dedicated.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/do-little>