

DO-NAUGHT

Meaning: Do-naught: a person who is perceived as inactive or ineffective, often lacking motivation or initiative.

1. His lack of initiative at work earned him the nickname "do-naught" among his colleagues.
2. Despite his talent, he often felt like a do-naught, unable to take the first step toward his dreams.
3. In the face of adversity, she refused to be a do-naught, choosing instead to fight for what she believed in.
4. The do-naught attitude of the team led to missed opportunities and stagnant progress.
5. Feeling like a do-naught during the project, he decided to seek help and regain his motivation.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/do-naught>