

DO-NOTHING

Meaning: Do-nothing (adjective): characterized by inaction or a lack of response, especially in situations requiring intervention or decision-making.

1. The organization's policy to do-nothing in response to the crisis was met with widespread criticism.
2. Sometimes, taking a step back and choosing to do-nothing can lead to better decisions in the long run.
3. His tendency to do-nothing during crucial moments frustrated his teammates.
4. In a world that demands constant action, learning to do-nothing can be surprisingly refreshing.
5. The committee decided to do-nothing rather than risk making the situation worse.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/do-nothing>