

DOBBER

Meaning: DOBBER (noun): A person who informs on others or reveals secrets, often to authorities or outside parties.

1. The teenager was labeled a dobber after he reported his friends for skipping school.
2. In the group, everyone knew not to share secrets with the dobber, as they would surely be leaked.
3. She felt betrayed when she discovered that her closest friend was the dobber who informed the teacher.
4. His reputation as a dobber made it difficult for him to make new friends in the neighborhood.
5. To avoid being seen as a dobber, she decided to keep her observations to herself during the meeting.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dobber>