

DOCTRINAL

Meaning: Doctrinal refers to the principles or beliefs that are held and taught by a particular group, especially in a religious context.

1. The church held a seminar to clarify its doctrinal positions on contemporary issues.
2. Many theologians debate the implications of doctrinal differences between various denominations.
3. Her research focused on the historical evolution of doctrinal beliefs within the faith community.
4. The committee was tasked with developing a new document that would address doctrinal inconsistencies.
5. Doctrinal teachings often influence the moral and ethical perspectives of the followers.
6. The church's doctrinal beliefs were challenged during the debate.
7. Her thesis explored the doctrinal differences between various religious movements.
8. The committee convened to review the doctrinal teachings of their faith.
9. Many scholars have dedicated their careers to studying doctrinal texts of ancient religions.
10. The conference aimed to promote understanding and dialogue on doctrinal issues among different denominations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/doctrinal>