

DOCTRINE

Meaning: Doctrine: a set of principles or beliefs held and promoted by a group, particularly in the context of religion or political ideology.

1. The doctrine of freedom of speech is a cornerstone of democratic societies.
2. Many religious groups adhere to a doctrine that shapes their beliefs and practices.
3. The school's educational doctrine emphasizes critical thinking and creativity.
4. In legal terms, the doctrine of precedent ensures consistency in court rulings.
5. Environmental sustainability has become a guiding doctrine for many corporations today.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/doctrine>