

DODDERED

Meaning: Doddered: moved in a shaky or unsteady manner, often due to age or physical instability.

1. The elderly man doddered across the street, grasping his cane tightly for support.
2. As the wind picked up, she doddered along the path, her steps uncertain and wobbly.
3. He doddered into the room, his frail frame barely holding his weight as he searched for his glasses.
4. The dog watched curiously as its owner doddered around the yard, struggling to maintain balance.
5. After years of neglect, the once sprightly woman now doddered slowly, reminiscing about her youthful days.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/doddered>