

DODECAHEDRAL

Meaning: Dodecahedral refers to a three-dimensional geometric shape that has twelve flat faces, typically in the form of regular pentagons.

1. The artist created a stunning dodecahedral sculpture that captivated all who viewed it.
2. In geometry class, we learned about the properties of a dodecahedral shape and its twelve faces.
3. The dodecahedral design of the building made it stand out among the more traditional structures in the city.
4. During the math competition, students were challenged to calculate the volume of a dodecahedral object.
5. Her fascination with polyhedra led her to explore the intricate patterns of dodecahedral tessellations.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dodecahedral>