

DOG-BRIER

Meaning: Dog-brier is a thorny shrub or vine, often found in underbrush, known for its tangled branches and dense growth in wooded areas.

1. The dog-brier, with its thorny branches, often tangled in the underbrush, is a common sight in the woods.
2. As we hiked through the forest, we had to carefully navigate around the patches of dog-brier that obstructed our path.
3. Children playing in the meadow discovered that the dog-brier's bright red berries were a tempting yet unwise snack.
4. The dog-brier blooms in late summer, attracting various insects with its delicate white flowers.
5. In traditional herbal medicine, the roots of the dog-brier have been used for their supposed anti-inflammatory properties.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dog-brier>