

DOG-FACED

Meaning: Dog-faced: having a face resembling that of a dog, often used to describe a person or being with canine-like features, particularly in a mythical or fantastical context.

1. The dog-faced boy was both fascinating and unsettling to those who encountered him.
2. In mythology, the dog-faced god was often associated with loyalty and protection.
3. Her dog-faced mask added a whimsical touch to the Halloween party, drawing compliments from all the guests.
4. The ancient carvings depicted a dog-faced creature that symbolized both fear and reverence.
5. As the sun set, the dog-faced shadows stretched across the yard, creating an eerie atmosphere.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dog-faced>