

DOG-HEADED

Meaning: Dog-headed: having the head or characteristics of a dog, often used to describe mythical or artistic representations of creatures with canine features.

1. The ancient sculpture depicted a dog-headed figure, symbolizing loyalty and protection.
2. In the fantasy novel, the villain was a terrifying dog-headed creature that haunted the villagers.
3. Her costume featured a striking dog-headed mask that captivated everyone at the masquerade.
4. The mythology described a fierce dog-headed god who guarded the gates of the underworld.
5. During the archaeological dig, they uncovered artifacts related to the worship of dog-headed deities.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dog-headed>