

DOG-ROSE

Meaning: A dog-rose is a wild rose species (Rosa canina) known for its fragrant pink flowers and its ability to attract pollinators, often used in gardens for ornamental purposes.

1. The dog-rose blooms beautifully in the early summer, attracting various pollinators.
2. In her garden, she has planted a dog-rose that adds a charming touch to the landscape.
3. The fragrant petals of the dog-rose are often used in natural remedies and herbal teas.
4. As we walked along the path, we noticed a cluster of vibrant dog-rose bushes by the stream.
5. The dog-rose, with its delicate pink flowers, is a favorite among many gardening enthusiasts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dog-rose>