

DOGHOLE

Meaning: Doghole: a filthy, dilapidated place or a small, eroded hollow, often associated with neglect or decay.

1. The abandoned building was filled with trash and debris, resembling a true doghole.
2. After the storm, the coastline was littered with dogholes where the ocean had eroded the cliffs.
3. He always avoided that part of town, as it was known for its dogholes and unsavory characters.
4. The old alley had turned into a doghole, but the vibrant mural on the wall still brought some life to it.
5. Despite its reputation as a doghole, the neighborhood had a charm that attracted a few adventurous souls.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/doghole>