

DOGMATICALNESS

Meaning: Dogmaticalness refers to the quality of being dogmatic, characterized by an unwavering adherence to established beliefs or opinions, often to the exclusion of alternative perspectives.

1. The dogmaticalness of his beliefs made it difficult for him to engage in open discussions.
2. Her dogmaticalness often alienated those who held differing viewpoints.
3. The professor's dogmaticalness was challenged by students eager for critical thinking.
4. In a world that thrives on diversity, dogmaticalness can hinder progress and understanding.
5. Despite his dogmaticalness, she appreciated his passion for the subject matter.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dogmaticalness>