

DOGSICK

Meaning: Dogsick refers to a state of illness or discomfort experienced by a dog, often characterized by symptoms such as lethargy or refusal to engage in normal activities.

1. The dogsick puppy whimpered softly as it curled up on the couch.
2. After eating something off the ground, the dog suddenly became dogsick and refused to play.
3. We rushed our dogsick Labrador to the vet for immediate treatment.
4. The smell of the dogsick dog lingered in the room, making it hard to breathe.
5. Despite feeling dogsick, the faithful dog managed to wag its tail when its owner returned.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dogsick>