

DOGWATCH

Meaning: Dogwatch: a period of time on a ship, typically divided into two shorter shifts, used for watchkeeping, especially during the evening hours.

1. The crew took turns on dogwatch to ensure the ship was safely navigated through the night.
2. During the dogwatch, the sailors shared stories and sang sea shanties to pass the time.
3. She preferred the dogwatch shift because it allowed her to enjoy the sunrise after her watch ended.
4. The old sailor reminisced about his days on the ship, particularly the camaraderie built during dogwatch.
5. After a long day, the captain felt relieved knowing that the dogwatch would be manned by experienced hands.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/dogwatch>